

Hello Oily Family!

Happy Christmas in October! Yes, I said that. I'm so excited because Young Living's Christmas catalog was released this week and I'm LOVING the goodies inside. They have a few of our favorites, but some wonderful new items as well. So go ahead and order some as gifts or keep a couple for yourself. The Christmas catalog items are available now on Quick Order only. I want to share with you a few of my favorite gift giving options.

But don't worry, I haven't forgotten about Fall ya'll. I also have included one of my favorite fall diffuser recipes as well.

Christmas Spirit Hand Soap.

Yes! This wonderful foam hand soap is scented with our favorite Christmas Spirit essential oil. It has a cute label and is available for purchase as a single or 3 pack. There is also a set that includes the hand soap and a YL branded towel to go along with it. These are definitely ready for gift giving. Such a practical gift and wonderful for use in your own home during the holidays as well.

Our favorite YL chapsticks are back. Yule Love Your Lips Lip Balm Set:

This set is a Christmas time favorite and includes the popular Vanillamint scent only available at Christmas time. Four different flavors of lip balm in a collectible tin. Perfect for gift giving as a set or split it into 4 different stocking stuffers.

Can't get enough of the Vanillamint?

The Very Merry Vanillamint collection is new this year. It comes complete with a himalayan Sea Salt Scrub and an exclusive Vanillamint Body Butter. I love this pampering duo!

YL's all NEW diffuser.

YL diffusers are the best; and every time a new one is released, I get so excited. This new diffuser does not disappoint. The sweet Aroma Diffuser set is a budget friendly diffuser that matches any decor AND includes a 5 ml bottle of Lemon essential oil.

The Ningxia Red kit is back!

It includes 2 bottles of Ningxia Red and comes with 5 ml bottles of Red Shot, Orange and Lime vitality. Use it as gift or it's beautiful to share at your holiday functions. The set comes at a 10% discount.

My final FAVORITE pick from this years catalog is the Premium Vitality Culinary Kit.

This kit includes some of our wonderful vitality oils. A wooden storage rack, stainless steel bowl, cooking utensils and a recipe book. Nothing says the holidays more than cooking our favorite meals and they are made so much better with our vitality essential oils. Desserts, Savory sauces and even beverages are blessed by the the addition of these oils. Perfect gift for the Chef or someone looking to up their cooking game in the kitchen.

These are only a few of my favorites from the NEW Christmas catalog. There are also some great ideas for the kiddos, bath bombs, SAVVY makeup items and even our new Nature's Ultra CBD items! Check out the link below to see for yourself!
