June 2025

Hello Wellness Family!

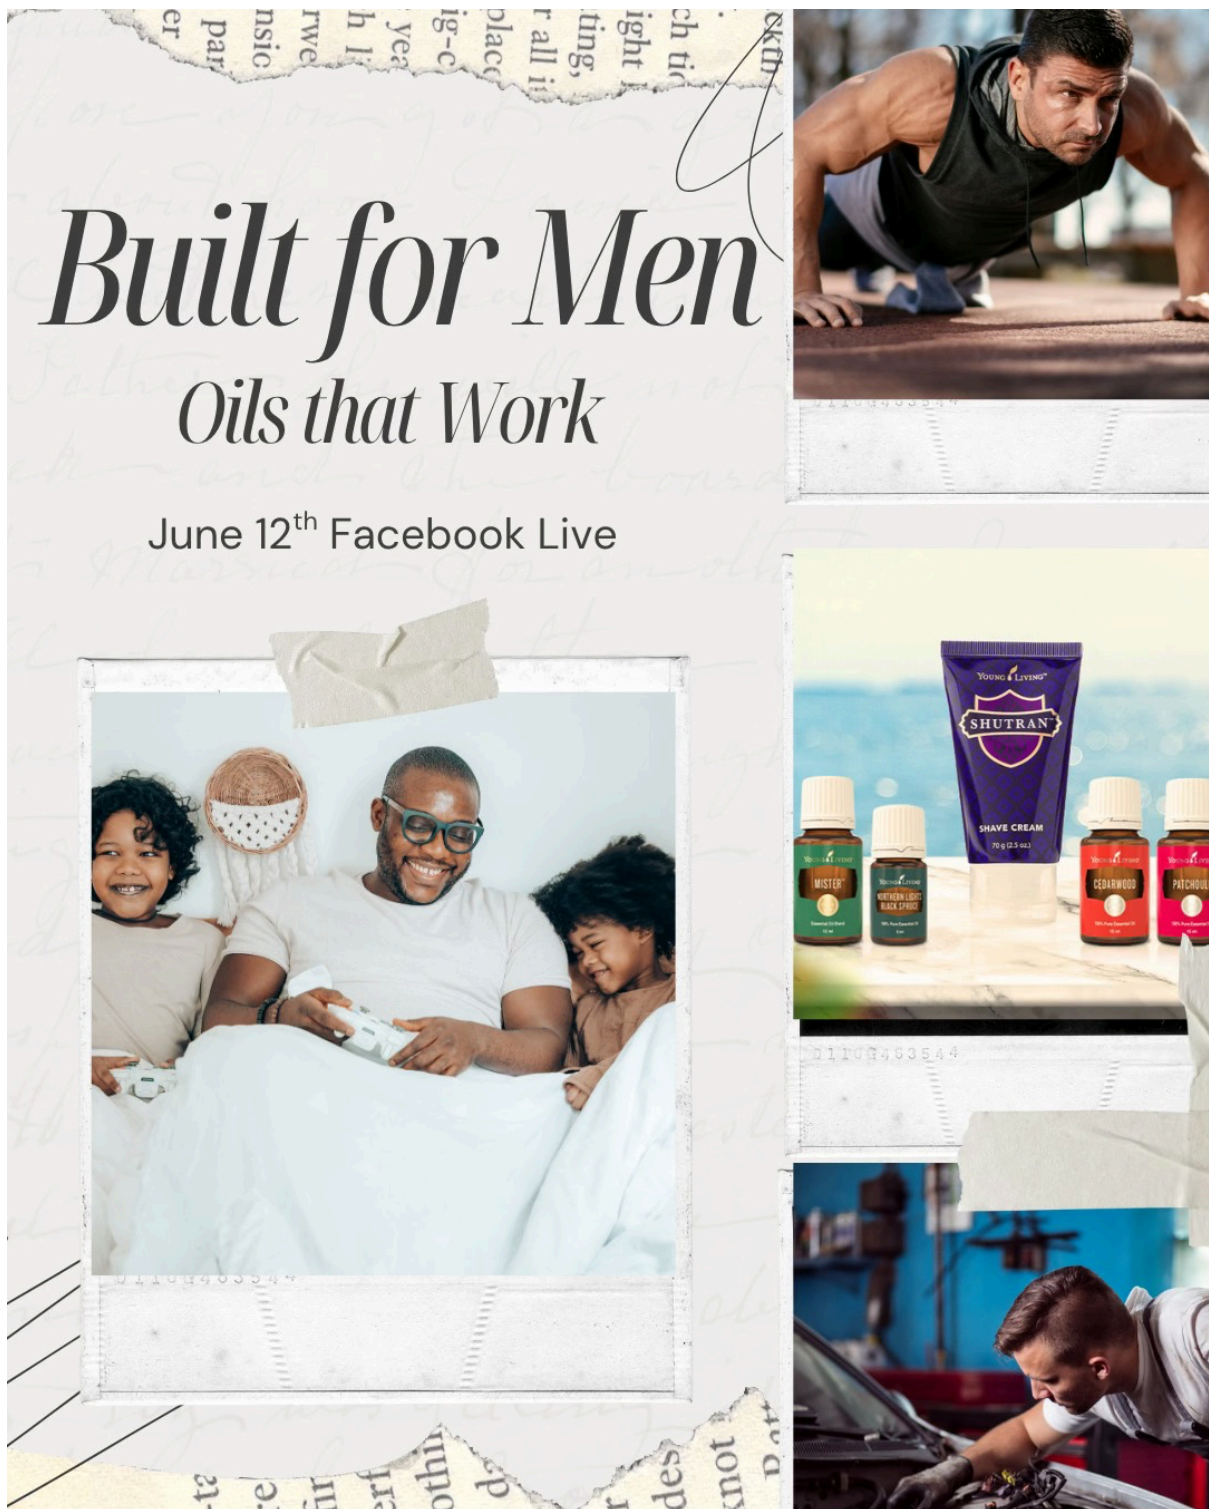

Happy June! As we step into a new month full of sunshine and fresh energy, we want to take a moment to say Happy Father's Day to all the incredible fathers and father figures in our lives. Your strength, guidance, and love are truly appreciated and celebrated this month and always.

We're excited to share some fresh new updated products releases, exclusive June promotions, our monthly Ezine with lots of great info for the men in our lives, and special gifts for those who are spreading the word about our shared love for essential oils.

Scroll down to explore what's new, get inspired, and make the most of this beautiful month!

With gratitude and wellness,

Karen

Ladies, can I be honest a moment?

Our husbands, sons, brothers, and grandsons work hard, carry a lot on their shoulders, and don't always take the best care of themselves. But the truth is these oils can really make a difference for them too.

On June 12th at 7PM CST, we're going live in the group for a special class called

"Built for Men: Oils That Work" 💪

It's short, practical, and designed to show our men how to use oils to feel better, sleep better, recover after work or workouts and yes, even help that beard of theirs. 😊

We'll have a male guest speaker joining us to share his real-life experience, so they don't have to hear it just from us.

If there's a man in your life who could use a little support physically or emotionally—invite him to sit in. Or better yet, watch it with him.

📌 Be sure you're in the Facebook group so you don't miss it. Let's help our men feel their best.

Join Our Stellar Wellness FB Group

In this month's Ezine, there are some great articles for supporting testosterone, sleep tips, uses for Goldenrod essential oil, the benefits of exercise and more!
